SCUDEM Supplemental Issue for Problem C - Game Play

Provide an analysis of which of the possible factors of the game result in the biggest changes for small changes. For example, does a small change in the number of obstacles have a large impact on the game? Does a small change to the amount of propellant make a big difference? Use your analysis to augment your report to indicate which factors will require the most testing and review.